

Ray Keesler

October 17, 1957 - January 29, 2025

Ray Keesler, born on October 17, 1957, in Coral Gables, Florida, passed away on January 29, 2025, in Fort McCoy, Florida. A loving father and grandfather, Ray was known for his adventurous spirit and down-to-earth nature. He was a dedicated professional truck driver who touched the lives of those around him with his kindness and gentle demeanor.

Ray had a passion for traveling, camping, and riding motorcycles, often seeking the joy of the beach, which held a special place in his heart. He delighted in BBQ food and could often be found enjoying classic rock and roll music, which provided the soundtrack to many memorable moments in his life. Friends and family will fondly remember his playful personality and his favorite saying, "It's five o'clock somewhere, damn it man."

Ray cherished his children: Nicholas Fletcher, Mathew Keesler, Kimberly Keesler, Michelle Keesler, Christopher Keesler, Taylor Burns (Dylan Burns), Travis Keesler, Abigail Keesler, and Brianna Olesinski. He is survived by his siblings, Pamela Stell (Michael Stell), Russell Linthicum (Charlene Linthicum), and Gerald Keesler (Jackie Keesler) and 21 grandchildren.

Throughout his life, Ray brought laughter, strength, and courage to those he loved. He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
