“ Dearest Dad... This is not good bye,..In my Heart& Soul, I know now that you are free in God's Grace., In this life you were an Angel in disguise, the purest and most gentle Soul, You taught me so much in life, and above all to always forgive and see the best in others, to love unconditionally is closest we can connect with God... Your light will always shine bright within my heart and soul, I carry your essence every second of every minute for all eternity in my Soul...I love you DAD,,your princess Rachel
