

Raymond Campbell

October 26, 1958 - August 26, 2016

Raymond "Butch" G. Campbell, 57, passed away on Friday, August 26th in Tavares, Florida. Born to Beverly and Raymond Campbell on October 26, 1958, Butch is survived by his partner of 29 years and wife for 13 of them, Barbara G. Campbell. He is also survived by his father, Raymond B. Campbell, mother-in-law, Grace Wegman, brothers Bryan and Michael Campbell; sisters Wendy Campbell, Tracy Seachrest and Laurie Dean; his extended siblings Mae Hodgson, Sonia McIntosh and Dana McGrady; his step-children, Dustin Reels and April Weaver; grandchildren whom he loved dearly, Colby, Kaylee and Layla Weaver, Zander Reels, Kathrine Asbury and extended grandchildren, Owen and Brody Osborne; a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins and great friends who will miss him very much. He was a high rise window cleaner and caulker for over 25 years and eventually had his own business in Florida which is Butch's Window Cleaning. Butch moved to Fruitland Park, Florida in 2002. He was a member of the local AMVETS and American Legion where he enjoyed bowling with his friends. He enjoyed volunteering and spent a lot of time enjoying his animal friends, especially the apes which he loved very much. We will have a celebration for all to share their memories of Butch at Hurricane Dockside Grill in Tavares on Saturday, September 10th from 1-3pm. A celebration will also be held in Delaware in October; details will be provided at a later date.
