“ Alice and Radiance, only one year after Raymond passed away , I received your call telling me about him. \"Pápa\" as I used to call him, and I loved him, was the most respectful , generous, happiest person, perhaps his personal problems, he tried to be the best partner for me, the excellent father for Radiance and for adopted son Nicholas.

*Because of Nicholas, I prefer to continuo my life without Ray Ray!
RIP PÁPA Ray. Descansa en paz Raymond Wise.*

“ I was locked up at Marion from 2007 to 2016 and knew Sarg pretty well always a joker, make you laugh, but on a serious note very understanding and compassionate. Always said make the best out of a bad situation. It hurt my heart to hear the news tonight and view his memorial video. Make you realize how short life is. I pray for his family and it was a honor but more a pleasure to have know sgt. Wise Rest In Peace. I know hes talking smack up top May GOD have mercy on his soul

“ Ray Ray you were the first Sergeant I worked for back in 1994. You taught me so much but in the face of some of the bad situations you would always find a way to make me laugh at something. God got one of the great ones when he took you that I know for sure. Love you Brother Michael Prevatte

“ Hey Ray, for many years we lived next door to each other as single parents. You raising Nick and me raising Erica. I will never forget all the talks we had trying to figure out how to be a good father and a good mother. Both of our law enforcement backgrounds made us brothers. I will miss you Ray and I am having a difficult time accepting this. I love you brother and our hearts are with you. Rest easy
