“ Red Curtain ! You made me the rider I was, and what I am today. You taught me fantastic work ethics, how to be tough, and how important it is to be great at whatever we do. You kicked me in the butt, threw me in a few mud puddles , and gave me some of the best hugs I ever had ! You will be missed , but your legacy goes on in so many people you touched it will never die ! I remember you saying more then once " Don't worry only the good die young " , when I was nervous or scared while learning to ride. Well you were right ! Love to you , and all of your family and friends !
