“ *Jan Michael and I were just devastated to hear about Rich. It was hard news to take. We were both happy to spend the time with both of you at your last visit and your other visits to Omaha, they will always be cherished memories especially the stories the laughter and dinner at Piccolos. We will miss him. I am certain that Sonny, Dave and Rich have found their 18 holes to play and Roger tinkering with the golf carts...can you hear the chatter. Rich was to young to leave this earth, but believe he did find peace in his life. May you and Troy find strength in the days to come. You will always be in our thoughts and prayers. “ Aunt Jan, Troy and family, Seems like when it rains it pours for our family. I guess when life kicks us, we have to hope that it kicks us forward. I have always enjoyed the many visits and phone calls. We had so much fun with Uncle Rich when he came down to spend some of the Memorial weekend. We laughed so hard so many times, it was just like old times again, even though the circumstances for the visit were not the best. I loved hearing his stories of growing up with mom and his stories of dad and him. It was just a really nice time. All I can say is heaven watch out, you have three Girouex men and Roger there. Guess God needed to liven up the place!! You are in my thoughts and prayers, All my love, Sandy
