“ Dear Richard, It's taken me more then a week to write to you. Our son's heart is broken, and I've found that mine is as well. I didn't know I'd feel this way, and I wish we could have had a last few word's to say to one another. They will stay inside of me till we see each other again. No matter where my life goes, I promise you we'll have to have the best Polish dinner ever, something you haven't had in too long. You are now an angel, and as you go around doing your work, please make sure to see your family, my mom and dad, Michelle's dad, and all the friend's you love. God needed you and we have to understand, though it's been SO hard. You are NOT forgotten. Love, Barbara
