Give him a minute and he would be bragging about one of his grandchildren. He loved telling a great joke or funny story, and delighted in telling people how old he was. He was also known for telling spoonerism stories. A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, May 18, at 4 PM at the Ocala Seventh Day Adventist Church at 415 NE 41st Ave. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made for Bibles to missionaries in Richard's memory to BEAMS (Bible Education and Missionary Service), PO Box 10200,

“ AnnaRose and children, so sorry to read this about Bro. Richard. I have lots of laughable memories of morning teachers devotions. I can still see that ugly red razorback sitting on his shelf. Then there was choir. . . Oh my, thank you for sharing in all of our lives. Sincerely, Nancy and Steve Wiest

“ Dear Mrs. Mooneyhan and Family, I am so sorry about your loss of Mr. Mooneyhan. In reading his obituary, I appreciated his love of family and for God's word the Bible. We can all take comfort in verses such as Revelation 21: 4 where we read that 'tears, death, sorrow shall be no more'.(KJ) It's comforting that since we know these conditions do not exist in heaven, then this verse is speak about conditions here on earth that will be done away with. Jesus also promised a resurrection of our loved ones at John 5:28-29. He showed what he will do when he resurrected Lazarus and others back to life on earth. Other comforting verses are; Isaiah 33:24; 25:8; and my favorite; Job 10, 12-15 (KJ). May these verse bring you comfort now and in the days to come. Sincerely Mrs. C. Santana.
