“ Happy birthday to my wonderful uncle. You have a special role in my life, not only are you my uncle but you are my friend; one of the few people who is able to be both. Every part of me misses every part of you. Every part of me wishes, that you could make me see different through all the heartache, all the hurt, and with all the chaos in my world. I could really use your words right now. Thank you for the endless number of life lessons you have taught me. I know that I'll see you again, I'm still not ready for this to be the end. There's no one else I'd rather share my day with. So, cheers to us on our day. Love you always. Happy Birthday Cosmic Twin.

“ You had me at hello....I would have never dreamt that our little lunch would have turned into something so amazing. It is so rare now a days. Over the years, we were always able to pick up right where we left off. We had no labels for one another and we knew our place in each other's life. I admired your love for your family. I could never get enough of that smile and twinkle you'd get in your eyes when talking with them or about them. It spoke volumes to me as to what kind of a man you were. Your passion for life was like no other, I felt like I was on the ride of my life being with you. I will miss your laughter, your corny little texts, the way you said my name, our snuggling, our warm embrace and that ever-so-gentle kiss on my cheek. I will miss hearing you play your guitar for hours, the unconditional love you had for Kota, Munchkin and myself and how you would show up on a whim, exactly when I needed you. You had the kindest strength and love that shone in your eyes and smile. This turn of events has put a little delay on the adventures we had planned. That being said, rest up sweetheart... we have more adventures to come and chapters to write when I see you again.... With all my love,Michelle
