“ To the family of Richard H. Price: In this time of great loss may you feel the ever present love of our Lord. May He draw you close to Himself, and to each other, for comfort and soothing of your heartache. May your mourning soon be transformed to peace and joy as you consider that heaven has gained one of your family's most unique and wonderful people. Richard now experiences that which we all long for... The complete and awesome love being in the arms of our Savior. Our time on earth is but a blink compared to eternity. Soon and very soon we will be reunited with our loved ones. Until then, my prayer for you is for the strength to continue God's purpose for your own lives with peace and love. Maranatha Susie, Bryan and family, Maranatha!

“ To my pawpaw who has always made me laugh. Who has always been there with the truth no matter how much it hurts. Who has always cared about his family no matter how screwed up we are. I will miss you terribly. but I am at peace because i know that you are with Jesus. Where there are no tears, suffering, or pain. Where you can finally be completely happy. I love you pawpaw. I cant wait to see you again. The time is coming soon!!!

“ I'll Remember you, In the colors of a sunset, in the comfort of our dreams, in the memory of a "SONG". In the pages of many PHOTO ALBUMS filled with pictures of your life, in the joy of thinking back to a time from long ago. In the places we discovered, in the moments that we shared, in the laughter that still dances in our hearts. In the legacy of love you left for those who follow, and the stories that were only yours to tell. and always more than anything, "I'll remember you in your that still lives with OUR hearts.....Love you Sweet Uncle... Your niece, Catherine Lindsey and Husband Rickey Lindsey
