“ *I would like to share a story about Rich. When I was a very young boy I fell into a very dark canal in Florida, Rich didn't hesitate to dive in and save my life. For this I'm forever grateful. Rich you will be forever missed.

“ Rich, as we all called him, was a good and loyal friend. I met Rich while I was an FHP Trooper working the Florida Turnpike. He traveled on the Turnpike almost daily and would stop at the Snapper Creek Service Plaza. He always said it was for a snack and coke. I suspect it was to cheer us up! Rich had a way of getting you to smile, even if you weren't in a smiling mood. He was one of a rare breed that you just liked immediately. The world will be a dimmer place without him. I'm sure he experienced his own "bad days" but I never witnessed him in a bad mood. A one of a kind man. I will certainly miss speaking with him. RIP Rich.

“ Richard was my ex husband . I have so many memories of Richard . He was a very strong willed person that loved life . And he was always being Richard . When I had are daughter Crissy we lived in portage Indiana . And I was feeling a little blue being stuck in the house for a couple of weeks . But are neighborhood had been flooded and u could not get out . But Richard jacked up the car put boards under the shocks and we floated out of the neighborhood him and I and the kids . We laughed so hard . Everyone was watching us float out. That was Richard he always made a way and left an impression . He is loved and will be missed . Love u Richard .
