“ Terry is my cousin and was born just hours before me on January 2, 1940. His dad and mine were brothers. I remember when my dad was injured in an automobile accident and Terry was home on leave from Boot Camp. He came to visit Dad at Long Hospital in Indianapolis and was the only person to visit him shortly before he died. It always stayed with me that Terry took the short time at home on leave to come to the hospital and visit my dad. Sorry for the loss, he's in a better place now Marvin Shields

“ I remember a story my Dad told me about him playing High School Basketball.... The very first game he ever played in, the ball ended up in his hands. He was so excited that all he could think of was to shoot it in the basket. At which he did shoot it and made the basket, the issue was he shot it into the opposing teams basket. I'm sure it was embarrassing to him at the time, but we have laughed together about that story many times over the years and every time I play basketball with my kids or grandkids, it reminds me of that story and my dad!
