“ You will be missed. Although we all went separate ways I've often thought about you and your family.

“ To Richard's Family. Your father and husband was special to me. I didn't see much of you growing up, and hadn't seen Richard in many years, but as a fledgling mechanic pursuing trade crafts in south Florida more than 30 years ago, I would often stop by his booth at the Chevrolet dealer to hang out and chat. He did windows, doors, and seals. Drove an old Corvair (rated amongst the 50 worst cars of all time). It is obvious that he directed his energy and focus toward his family, as noted by the sharp contrast between you lovely homes and Richard's cars. I'm certain that you all feel blessed to have a great father It saddens me that he is gone, but I realize that death and passing are part of life. We and we will carry his memory with us.

“ We had a super time with the trains. Talking about cars by the hours was a great treat for me, as he knew them inside and out. A father-in-law with no equal to our two son`s. He will be missed by Mrs. Gee and I. I have lost a great friend.

“ Our condolences go out to Richards entire family. While it's never easy to say goodbye to someone we love, knowing that they are no longer suffering helps in our grieving. He will always and forever be in your hearts and in your memories and he will forever watch over each and every one of you. God Bless you all

“ Pop, I miss you very much and think of you often. Your smile your laughter and your kindness will forever be missed. One memory that stands out to me most is that at a very young age you taught me how to drive in that little truck of yours. I remember you would tell me not to stop in the cross walk because that's where the women pushing the baby carriage walks and we dont want to hit them. funny how so many years later I still think of that women and her baby in the carriage every time I approach a crosswalk. Im very greatfull and extremely thankfull that I just spent some time with you ion tuesday. I saw how bad you were hurting and I'm so glad that your not in that horrible pain anymore. I will always remember you and forever keep you and the memories I have of you in my heart. Please watch over me and the girls. Please keep us safe and out of harms way. May you rest in peace. See you again someday. I love you! Stephanie

“ DAD, I felt your presence as Mom, Darkene, Lori, and myself sat through the wonderful service for you. I know you were a proud Marine and you were smiling down upon us with your eyes open wide. Miss you so much DAD and it's hard to believe your gone. I know though you are not in pain anymore and you don't have to worry about doctors telling you they don't know what's wrong. Keep smiling DAD and one day we will be with you once again!

“ I always share that story of how on my 8th birthday, mom gave me a pretty little outfit, but you, dad, gave me my ball, glove, bat & hat. You will always be my buddy! Thank you for the wonderful life you gave to me. I love you & will miss you beyond words.

“ Rit treated me to the first PGA tournament I had ever been to. We chose to follow Jack Nicklaus. Somewhere on the front 9, we saw the Bear smack one out of a sandtrap, over our heads and down a dogleg right. Amazing. We both stared at each other with our mouths open. Then Rit let out that little snicker under his breath with a grin. We both knew we had seen the master at work.
