“ I had only known you 11 years, but those years were blessed to have you in a part of my life. The memories will last a life time and cherish the way you helped brighten any ones day by being within your presence. I am glad to know your having eternal rest, you maybe not with us but know the love you shown others will carry your spirit on forever. I send my love to Sandy, your lovely daughter an rest of family, as with them I know that one day we will all be reunited in a big family reunion.

“ When I got the news the day you left us I was in total disbelief, how could it be you? I remember just a tear rolling down my face as I was driving. Someone calling me to tell me you went to be with God & my grandpa, one thing for sure this was totally unexpected. So many unanswered questions still remain as to why you & not a day goes by that I won't think of you. with each and every memory made with you will fill my heart for a lifetime...it has been said he only takes the good ones and I 01/31/2014 he did just that. I remember the trips we took, the laughs we shared. The time you ran into a display at Walmart and I was the only one there to pick it up. It's so hard to come to grips with this but I will say this you were an awesome grandma. The baking during the holidays, the times on the paper route, me crying because I was in trouble and I'd call Pappy and you would always say "Bill she's not going to learn if you keep giving in" I'm going to miss you grandma, you may be gone but your spirit will live on in us forever!
