“ We are going to miss his different advises he was constantly giving us when we move to this neighborhood early this year.

Rest in peace dear Jay.

“ Both Martha and I have lost our parents, as well as our first spouses. Martha also had a son pass away one year ago. Hence, we can empathize -- because we have been there -- with those to whom death has brought grief. We are neighbors to Milagros Gonzalez, and we want you to know that you can call on us anytime day or night if we can help or just to listen or to spend a few moments with you. We will pray for God to lessen your burden and feeling of loss.
