

Robert Williams

August 24, 1927 - September 19, 2009

Obituary of Robert Williams "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints" (Psalms 116:15). A faithful and vibrant life was brought to a summation on Saturday, September 19, 2009 at Estelle's Hospice House in Ocala, Florida. On that day, Mr. Robert Lee "Pop" Williams bade a fond farewell to this earthly plain to "fly away" AND BE AT REST WITH JESUS. "The time of departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day" (II Timothy 4:7-7). So, eternally resting in the bosom of Jesus, hear Brother Robert Lee Williams say, "I'M FREE." Mr. Robert Lee Williams was born on August 24, 1927 in Newberry, South Carolina to the late Willie and Beulah Heller Williams. He accepted the Lord as his savior at an early age and became a member of the Zion Hopewell Baptist Church and served as an usher until he moved to Knoxville, Tennessee, later to Buffalo, New York and then to Ocala, Florida where he joined Living Waters Worship Center and later became a member of Sanctuary of Ocala. He attended public school in Newberry County. Late in life he was married to Geneva Williams. He is preceded in death by two brothers, Walter and Freddie Williams and two sisters, Geneva Williams and Doretha McKee. Robert Lee Williams is survived by his wife, Geneva of Ocala; four sons, Robert Mack Williams and wife Linda of Winnsboro, SC, Michael Williams and wife Tracey of Boston, MA, Milton Williams and wife Marylin of Buffalo, NY, and Carey Hensley of Knoxville, TN.;

one daughter, Curleen Brothers of Clinton, MD; nineteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren; two brothers, James Glen of New York, Willie (Nellie) Williams of Columbia, SC; four sisters, Alberta Grice of Buffalo, NY, Leola Alexander of Rock Hill, SC, Addie Mae Suber of Blair, SC, and Cleon (Fate) Young of Los Angeles, CA; two sisters-in-law, Maggie Williams and Bessie Williams; god-son, Bob Marcum and wife Dianna; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many relatives and friends
