“ I did not know Roger very well. Was only around him a few times. His sister Sandy is my very best friend. She is lost beyond words at losing her beloved brother. Prayers knowing that he is at rest now and no longer suffering.

“ Roger and I stood watch onboard the USS Leahy in the US Navy. He was a very skilled at anything and every thing he put his mind to. I am still to this day in awe of the time Roger installed most of the lighting in my house. He spent several weekends doing physical labor, but the reality of it is, it was his friendship that meant the most. Roger became THE friend that turned into a Brother, an Uncle to my children. I am grateful to have known you, Roger. I am grateful that we kept in touch throughout the years. You will be missed. I love you, brother...

My wife and I extend our deepest condolences to his wife, Maria. And to his sister, Sandra. May Roger's memory comfort you.
