“ May you receive comfort from the word of God during this time of loss. Acts 24:15 says there will be a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous. Can you imagine the joy of Martha and Mary when Jesus raised Lazarus back to life?-Read John 11:21-24, 38-44. Revelation 21:3,4 promises that one day death, mourning, and outcry will be no more.

“ I met Ron when I was very young in the business, working with him on the design and permitting of Poppasquash Park, in North Attleboro. After a few projects, Ron was my friend. He was happy to share his expertise and guidance, which was very beneficial to my professional development. What I liked most, was his quick and decisive demeanor. It was very special to watch a development evolve when directed by knowledge. After Ron moved south, I don't recall seeing him again, but I did from time to time relish the opportunity to catch up on the phone. As I had just told one of my friends, Ron was the best of what it was to be a Caponigro. I can only applaud him for doing what he did well, raising a great family and living a wonderful life. Good for you my friend.
