“ You meant so much to all of us...and I wish I had told you how much you meant to me while you were on this earth.

You treated me like a daughter and gave me the love and structure I needed as a child when my parents could not. The greatest gift you had given me was time with Isabel. Allowing me to be a child in my youth when my parents separated. I'll never forget your laugh or the nudges you'd give me with your elbow. I'll never forget the countless weekends we spent together. I remember walking past the kitchen in the mornings to catch you reading Stephen King. Every Sunday you'd take Isabel and I along with you to go grocery shopping. I'll never forget our trip to Florida...where I first became obsessed with Pink because we listened to the album on the way down. You put me at ease when I would worry about my mom. You took so many worries away and I truly appreciate that. You and Isabel were the normalcy in my life. You were so great not only to me but my entire family. If it were not for you perhaps I would not be here today. It pains me to know Isabel, Danny, and Rachael have to live without you. You were a wonderful mother but I know you've given them enough wisdom and guidance for a lifetime. I love you Aunt Rosie.
