

Rosamond Dutton

December 7, 1907 - July 21, 2007

Obituary of Rosamond Dutton Rosamond Albertina Dutton, also known as Rose, was born December 7, 1907 in Colon, Republic of Panama to Joseph and Ida (Stredick) McClaren. She was the eldest of fifteen children. After Rose graduated from high school, she went on to study nursing in Jamaica at the university. Rose played basketball and was always an all around sports fan. She returned to Panama and in 1928 she married Gerald Dutton, that union produced six children consisting of five boys and one girl. From the oldest to youngest; George, Cecil, Joyce, Alfred, Oswald, and Lorenzo. Rose was the wind beneath her children's wings, always encouraging them to soar for the sky. She was a loving, caring mother to her children, while opening her home to family members and friends in need. To Rose, there was always room for one more. Rose and Gerald's children gave them eleven grandchildren, that they were involved in raising. Some of the grandchildren's fondest memories of their grandmother is her enormous sense of humor, and how she was always managed to keep them laughing. She is survived by her daughter, Alice Joyce Perkins of Ocala, Florida, and two sons, Cecil Dutton of Panama and Oswald Dutton of Bronx, New York, her sister, Mrs. Edna Benson, and brother, Arnold McClaren both of Panama, eleven grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren and two great great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews as well as a host of other relatives.

Tribute Wall

“ Rosamond Dutton

June 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest "Dutsy", You are gone but will never be forgotten as your spirit will remain with me forever. Your loving Grandson Ricky

Ricardo Dutton - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Loving caring Mother. You have always been the "wind beneath my wings." Thank God for the "wind beneath my wings." Loving you always, Daughter

Joyce - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Grandma! I didn't cry when I heard you were gone, but I couldn't hold the tear that rolled from my eye. I love you Ms. Duts. Yours always, Vero

Veronica Dutton - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ When her wings could no longer fly, she took the hand of God, and like Sojourner Truth, went "home like a shooting star." Remember the happy times and precious moments you shared and when you need your courage strengthened, God is but a prayer away. In deepest sympathy, Norma & Cynthia

Norma & Cynthia - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ I am honored to have known and spent time with a remarkable woman like great grandma. I celebrate her life and am grateful for the time we had.

Janae - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ Not too many are so blessed to witness generations of memories and love. I was blessed, not only to experience that, but to watch my son Joaquin and wife Janice become part of the legacy you have created. We are all a family blessed with your love and your memory.

Jamal & Janice Jones & Family - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

SJ

“ To My Dearest Grandma, I was your first Grandchild and you, My "Very Special Shinning Star". How I love you so. Grandma, you guided me, you inspired me and I'll never let the memories go... I know you're in that special place and God will make you one of his special flowers because you always believe in "Our Lord And Saviour" Your Loving Granddaughter Shiela

Shiela Jones - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

PS

“ The entire staff at Roberts Funeral Homes wish to express our condolences to the Dutton family during this difficult time.

Patrick T. Cooney, Sr. - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

NT

“ Dear Great Grandma Rose, I know you are in heaven shining down on us, watching us, keeping us together, and most importantly loving us. I will truly miss you. Love Always, Nicole

Nicole Tull - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM