“ *Rosamond has long been one of our "favorites" during our church ministry at Oakhurst. (We try to not have favorites but she was so special.) For years she has received Holy Communion every Friday and shared prayers with us. We loved her positive attitude, sparkling eyes and wonderful smile - and her famous "shake it, don't break it" quote. We thought she was Catholic (surprise, perhaps to all of us) and evidently she was a devoted Christian who enjoyed our Friday visits. It was our joy to be able to pray with her the day before her death and she will be in our memories and prayers. God bless all of you, her dear family and friends, and bring you consolation. “ Dear Clara: On behalf of my family I want to express my sympathy to you and the rest of the family. I will always remember Aunt Rose for her warmth, sense of humor and her delicious meals. She was very witty and smart. Aunt Rose lived a full life and she knew how to enjoy life. May her soul rest in peace. I pray that the family hold on to the happy memories. Be assured you are in my thoughts and prayers and I know that God will sustain the family. I am sorry I will not be at Aunt Rose's home going. Love and God Bless. Bev
