

Rose Burress-Ladnier

October 30, 1939 - July 11, 2020

On Saturday July 11, 2020, Sharon Burress Ladnier, loving wife and mother of four children, passed quietly at home at the age of 80. Born Rose Sharon Burns on October 30, 1939 in Dyersberg, Tennessee to Syble Lucille Baker and J.B. Burns. She was blessed with a generous and loving nature that shone throughout her lifetime. Her years in the medical profession showed her intuitive side while her gardens showed her creative side. The word "paint" made her eyes sparkle for all of the possibilities, a fun loving dancer and a terrific southern cook, this was our Sharon. One of five children she is survived by her husband Donald Craig Ladnier, brothers Edward Burns and James Terry Burns, Daughters Kathy, Anita and Patricia. Seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. A Lifelong friend to a precious few.

Tribute Wall

CG

“ Rest in Peace Aunt Sharon , much love and respect

Cindy Garner - July 30, 2020 at 12:00 AM

AG

“ A memory that I will always remember about my mama is her kindness and was never selfish when it came to us girls.she taught us so much and to be kind and have respect for others. She always said " God dont like ugly " I will miss you so much mama and will NEVER forget you, love your daughter Anita

Anita Garner - July 29, 2020 at 12:00 AM

PA

“ Momma, this has been so heartbreaking. You are finally home now

Patty - July 29, 2020 at 12:00 AM