“ I can't remember the day I signed my lease with the Costas and moved into the third unit of their three-family house but I clearly remember how welcoming they were. In late 1976 early 1977, when my relationship with Peter was getting serious, I went to ask Rose if it would be okay for Peter to move in with me. She was 100% supportive and treated us like family from that day on. There was one other time we needed Rose's approval. Peter got me a Yorkie dog for my birthday. Again, Rose didn't hesitate to give approval and from that day forward she treated the dog, Sammie, like family too. Over the years we have stayed in touch and spoke every Christmas. Rose – you will be missed!
