

Rosemary Coslick

December 31, 1969 - November 21, 2007

Obituary of Rosemary Coslick
ROSEMARY MELLON COSLICK
July 2, 1918 to Nov. 21, 2007
Born in Waterbury, CT: died in Ocala, FL. Beloved wife, mother and friend. A special flower of Jesus and Mary was picked and taken to her heavenly home to be transplanted in the Eternal Garden of Heaven: there to continue to give Praise and Glory to God. Her husband Carl, Sr. and her sons Jim and George preceded her in death. Rosemary and her family moved to Ocala in 1956. Carl, Sr. managed the Ocala Natural Gas Co. and was instrumental in bringing natural gas to the Ocala area. She was a member of Blessed Trinity Catholic Church. While on her journey here on earth, she loved and cared for husband, Carl, Sr. and her children; Carl, Jr., Caren his wife; Kay Thompson, Bill her husband; Paula Nogrady, John her husband, George Coslick, Laura Coslick and Jim Coslick. Grandchildren include Catherine, Paul, and Brian Coslick; Travis and Shawn Thompson; Matthew Nogrady and Sam Coslick. Rosemary spread love and joy to all that met her.