Ruth was born on Christmas Day 1934 in Auburn MA. She dedicated her working years as a home health aide, taking care of others was always a large part of her life. In her early retirement days she was always on the go spending much time with her "girls"

Diane and Rita.

Making crafts baking treats were just some of the things she would do for the family and she never drove like an old lady! She enjoyed going for walks, reading, music, gameshows and puzzle books. She had a love for collecting owls and crystal figurines. She was always up for a sweet treat too! We take this time to remember the good times when she was still at her best and always a happy soul. May she rest in peace knowing she will be truly missed.
