“ Margaret, Please know that my heart is with you and think of you often. A smile came to my face when i was thinking of our camping trip to Chincoteague Island many-many years ago with you & pop-pop to see the pony's swim. We camped in your trailer, made the best crab cakes ever (with no filler), and ate them for breakfast, lunch & dinner. We loved it. Holly & I remember you & pop pop turning out the lights and opening the curtains in the camper. We didn't know what was going on, but then you said, we do this to watch the show. The people across the road would drink and fight; so we would sit there and watch them! Pop pop always got a kick when I would make my cereal by putting the milk in first, then the cereal so my cereal wouldn't get soggy! And as always, he loved to make fun of Holly's laugh (& we still do today!) I will always remember that trip and I hope this little memory brings a smile to your face. love you. C.T.
