“ Although I only knew you for a short time Sandy you offered me kindness and support regarding my daughter whom is disabled. Through all you were encountering in your life you still took the time to reach out to me with little ideas for what I was going through. To me that meant the world whether you ever knew that I don't know and never will. The day you left everyone lost someone so precious but Heaven gained an angel they were just waiting for your arrival. I will never forget your emails though we only met one time, it seemed liked I had known you all my life. I can say though it is through tears, and sadness I am happy you now are pain free and whole again as you watch down upon all your love ones from the heavens far above us, you now rest in peace. Amen
