

Sarah Hodges

August 23, 1947 - May 2, 2007

Obituary of Sarah Hodges Sarah Marie Sloan Hodges, of Ocala, Florida, passed away on May 1, 2007. Sarah had survived many difficult health issues throughout her entire life, including three kidney transplants and heart valve replacement surgery. Even with all her health difficulties she never wavered from her dedication to her husband and family. Sarah was an extraordinarily loving person that always thought of others before herself. Sarah personified goodness and kindness. Each of us who knew and loved her, and many complete strangers benefited from her endless generosity. We are all mindful of her gentleness and tireless efforts to make others happy, we are all blessed to have shared in her life, and will carry her in our hearts forever. Sarah was born in Mouthcard, Kentucky , August 23, 1947 to the late Curtis Sloan and Irene Mosley Sloan of Ocala . Sarah grew up in Ocala, and after attending Central Florida Community College, worked for the Marion County School Board. After her marriage to her loving husband, French in 1970, she moved to Tucson, Arizona for 9 years. Sarah and French returned to Ocala in 1979, and established Sun Valley Mobile Homes on Pine Street, which they operated together for the last 28 years. Sarah was hard working and appreciated, and gave extra consideration to many of her customers, who in return became her good friends. Sarah is survived by her husband of 37 years, French E. Hodges, of Ocala, her mother, Irene Sloan of Ocala; three sisters, Ginger Brown of Leesburg, FL, Gail Laffey of Orlando, FL. and Patricia Potter of Marshville, NC; two brothers, Gary Sloan of Cottonwood, CA and Clinton Sloan of Ocala and by her many nieces and nephews, Gabe, Sarah Marie, Rose, Will, Hannah, Elizabeth, Jordan, Tracy, Nathan and Jeannine. Sarah was preceded in death by her late Father, Curtis Sloan, of Ocala, and her sister, Dot Sloan, of Gainesville, Fl.
