We were shocked by the news of Scott's death since he was still so young. We also knew how sick he has been all these years. “ Just like the man before you and the man before him. I`m sitting here with a coffee and water, thinking about how I`m going to make a difference in today. As i sip from the cup, I wonder if you know how much of a difference you made in my life. From fishing,hunting,welding,women and wrenching. And lets not forget the bullshitting! From the very first day you found out you were going to be an uncle. You took the time to make a difference in my life and I wanted to thank you for it. I promise you my friend, i will tell my son`s about all the days we spent together and how you made that difference in my life. god bless you and i hope your having your coffee and water with me and grandpa today and everyday.... I love you man!!!! I love you... jr.

“ Kathy, I know that no message can take the pain away from losing someone you love. I never had the pleasure of meeting Scot but from what I have read he was a loving, caring, kind, and funny man who was loved by many. May he be at peace and travel without pain on to the next part of his life journey. I will keep you and the Lierman family in my thoughts and prayers. Love you lots.

“ I will always remember you Scot Alan (Haus) Lierman. You were one of a kind. I will always cherish our childhood memories when life was so innocent and full of fun. I remember Leonard Street swimming in your back yard pool. You always had to be the one to splash me in the face with water, along with loving to hear Debbie and I holler at you, you loved aggravating us!The time in Lowell when you tried to get me to ride that horse of yours, you called me a city slicker and told me to ride. I do have to say, that was the first horse that didn't throw me. Eating too many cannoli's at Grandma Loppicclo's house on holidays, then looking at one another and calling each other piggy's.Great memories Scot! You will forever be in my heart. I will miss you forever. I will always remember that smile of yours! May you rest in eternal peace Haus~ With Love, Your Cousin, Cindy and Family~ <3

“ I know that we haven't seen each other since high school and that I never got the opportunity to meet Scott, but I can feel through your words how amazingly happy he made you. And I just wanted you to know that I am here for you day or night if you need to talk, or laugh, or cry. I have been in this position myself and soon you will just be remembering the good memories and smile when you think of him. And the things that remind you of him will be the ones that make you get up every morning. You and your family are in my thoughts and in my prayer.
