

Scott Hanson Ekberg

December 6, 1950 - November 28, 2024

Scott Hanson Ekberg, 73, of Ocala, Florida, passed away peacefully in his home on November 28, 2024.

Born on December 6, 1950, in Brockton, Massachusetts, Scott was the son of Ruth and Norman Ekberg. He grew up in East Bridgewater and graduated from East Bridgewater High School in 1968. Afterward, he began a career as a test engineer for Lockheed Martin before pursuing his entrepreneurial spirit and starting his own business as a FedEx driver.

Scott's passion for aviation was a defining part of his life. An active member of the Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) Chapter 812 in Ocala, he found joy in flying and camaraderie among fellow enthusiasts. Scott was also an animal lover, deeply devoted to his beloved dog, Shadow.

He is survived by his sons, Michael and Chris; stepdaughter Cathleen, granddaughter Victoria, his brothers, Ernie (Brenda) Ekberg and Jack (Kim) Ekberg; and his nieces and nephews, Stephen, Brent, Daniel, Chris, and Kim. Scott was preceded in death by his parents, Ruth and Norman.

In honor of Scott's wishes, no formal funeral services will be held. To celebrate his memory, contributions may be made to EAA Chapter 812 in Ocala, Florida or on the EAA website at <https://www.eaa.org/eaasupport-eea/>
