“May God continue to comfort the Ryan Family and those near and dear to him during this time. Grief is a process that requires time, healing, and strength. Look to the hill from whence cometh our help, for help cometh from the Lord our God. Though we have little understanding of the process of everlasting life, we can rest assured Sean shall ache no more. I will ask that God keeps you all united, and comforted by the presence of your loving family. Love Mom and Pop Ryan.

“I did not know Sean. I became aware of his battle via social media. I was so touched by his journey and the outpouring of love, prayers and support of Sean. I knew he must have been someone great. His will, his journey and the ability to bring so many people together as one....rooting for the same cause was very uplifting to so many. I was rooting and praying for him. For his battle to touch so many, so deeply, I can't imagine what it must be like for you as his family to lose him. So, my prayers continue for you all. I pray that God wraps his loving arms around you and mend your hearts, comfort and keep you. Josky you were a great inspiration. Your strength and faith in God is amazing. You are the true definition of what faith is. You are your brothers keeper... it showed. I pray God continues to be bless you all in your time of sorrow. My condolences #FlyKuntry

“ To Gary and the family. I have been praying for Sean since you told me of his condition. I will continue to pray for your family. I believe that God, in His infinite wisdom, brings those He loves most, back home again to His kingdom in Heaven. That is where Sean now resides, in the bosom of the Lord. No pain, no worries, completely at peace. God Bless you all.

“ Sean, is a person who's friendship I will always cherish. A perfect gentleman one who always treated me like a lady. I thank you for the values you instilled in not only Sean but both your sons as well. My dad was diagnosed the sametime and during my hard times Sean was right there; encouraging me. I will continue to pray for comfort, strength, and for God to make the pain manageable day by day. God, wrap the Ryan family in your perfect peace, Amen

“ *The Ryan's Family: He Remains In this world we are birth through an unknown pain, In his eyes you looked and fell in love again Still he remains... You'll remember your first kiss, filled with a mothers' bliss You'll remember his first steps Every detail in depth Still he remains... I know that this is hard And simple card won't do so, I figured I'd write this poem for my codolences to you... I know he may be gone but, He's in a better place And only in God's time will we reunite to see his smiling face... In my heart I still grieve because I couldn't believe My best friend had to leave but, my heart is at ease. In God's arms will he rest Because God knew what was best And when it was done I asked God for one thing That his memories 'for you' would still remain... “ TO THE PARENTS OF SEAN "BIG KUNTRY" RYAN Praying for you, faith to uphold you, and loving memories to help you smile again. At this time of sorrow, may these truths sustain you... Your loved one will always be as close as a memory, and the God of all comfort will always be as close as a prayer. Words, however kind, can't mend your heartache: but those who care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind. May you find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. God Bless You All

“ I pray that god will ease your pain, and help you get through this time of grieving. I had the pleasure of meeting sean a few years back at ghost house, he was a very nice and layed back person never heard him say anything unkind to anyone. So sorry that he is not here with us any longer. I will keep the family in prayers.

“ Sean "Big Kuntry" Ryan knowing you're in the hearts and thoughts of others help your love ones through this time of sorrow. For your parents no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. Extending deepest sympathy for you in your loss. And hoping, too, that comfort and peace may come to you. Sadly missed along life's way, quietly remembered every day... No longer in our life to share, but in our hearts Sean "Big Kuntry" Ryan you're always there.

“ Ever since the first day I met Sean he had such an amazing spirit about him. We began our friendship right in the midst of him finding out about his cancer. And throughout this entire ordeal he had the BEST spirits. He NEVER let it get him down. He was a funny soul & could always keep a smile on your face. He had thee biggest heart and most amazing smile. I know he's smiling down looking at how much he was loved! To his parents you did a very fine job of raising such a wonderful, kind and loving son. To his brother I commend you on your everlasting faith & love you had for Sean. He loved you dearly and the bond you two shared was nothing less than amazing!! He is TRUELY blessed to have a brother like you. To the rest of the family I know losing a loved one is never easy but the Sean I knew wouldn't want anyone being sad for him but celebrating the life he iived! You may be gone in flesh but you will forever live on in our hearts!! Love you much Tiffany<3

“ I didn't know Sean personally, but I do know the POWER of God. It truly amazed and blessed me to see the city pull together to pray for this man's life. Throughout the social media all I saw was #PrayForKuntry! I asked for the same city who prayed for your family member to pray for your strength and endurance as well. What the devil meant for harm God will make for good! When the devil was trying to take away everyone's faith that made us even stronger! Our prayers became consistent, unified and determined. Know that Sean's life made a DIFFERENCE! He served his purpose in this short time! He lived his life and showed others the CHRIST in Him!

“ I first met Sean a long time ago. About 16 years, when he was dating a close family member of mines. He was a fun, kind and down-to-earth person. And there was never a boring moment around him. My heart was heavy hearing about his health. He was close to my Aunt Pookie who raised me. She didn't know he was ill. And didn't take his passing well. Just wanted to come and send our condolences. Sean gave us great memories and was a great person to have known. I hope his parents, brother and other family are proud to have had his bundle of life for the time he was here with us. Thanks for taking the time to read my words. Rhonda Lane.

“ Sean 9yrs ago we gained another brother when you began dating our sister Kim. You were a great brother & uncle. My kids love Uncle Kuntry so much. We have so many wonderful memories so I dare not complain. When the doctors said 1yr to live you made it over 3. When the doctors mentioned hospice to you a few weeks ago you said "they must know something I don't know" & proved them wrong yet again. Proving w/ God all things are possible. The definition of a true soldier until you took your last breath. We love you so much!!!
