“Dear Shirley Lazarick Family, please accept my deepest condolences in your loss of Mrs. Lazarick. I appreciated that her being in nursing showed that she was a self-sacrificing, caring lady. I know that she must have worked hard to help others feel better. May you be comforted by good memories but also by the Bible's promises that soon all suffering and even death will be brought to an end. As you consider verses such as Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 33:24; 25:8, the promises will no doubt comfort you. Especially to, is Jesus' promise at John 5:28-29 of a resurrection of our loved ones as well as Job 14:14-15 when the dead will be called back to life. May these verses comfort you now and in the days to come.

Sincerely Mrs. C. Santana.
