

Shirley Ann Messano

August 31, 1933 - September 24, 2024

Born August 31st, of 1933.

Proceeded in death by two son, Robert and Richard Hardin.

Survived by her husband of 54 years, Joseph Messano, And two children Pamela Fisher and Randall Hardin

A longtime resident of Miami, Shirley won a Shirley Temple look-alike contest as a child. As a teenager, she was an avid softball player.

Shirley began her working career as an operator for Bell South, eventually moving into the engineering department, retiring as an AT&T employee.

Shirley has been a resident of Ocala, living on top of the world with her husband Joseph since 1990.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Crossroads Community Church of God.