“ Stan and his wife, can't remember which twin (they were both sweethearts!) bought a home from me when they moved to Billings Montana. it was a divorce sale and the people didn't winterize the home. When Stan moved in and turned on the water, water was squirting out all over in the basement and it was a weekend. I went over and Stan and I repaired all the leaks in the copper pipes He and his wife were friends of my young family. He told me over and over to get a cam-recorder, in a loving fatherly way. I didn't have the money, but he was right, I should have squeezed the money from somewhere as my two little girls are now in their 30's. Too late to get those once-in-a lifetime shots of young children. He was a super super good human being and I know the world is less without him!! I miss him just knowing he won't be making other people smile in Florida like he did here in Montana. Sam & Diane Rankin

“ In lieu of flowers pay someone a compliment or tell them a joke to make them smile!
