“ Along with all of Steve's teachers and friends in the Stetson School of Music community, I share in your sadness at this time. Steve is a remarkable young man, a tribute to his Dad and certainly a special part of his legacy that lives on. Treasure your memories and share your stories with one another!

“ To every body that does not know me I am Steve's son Brandon. I want to personally thank every body that has wrote in this guestbook and everybody that was there for me and my family during my fathers death. My father was my best friend and my Pastor and above all he was some one that I could sit down with night or day and just talk to, he was never to busy to sit and chat and drink a cup of coffee in fact he usally made me make the coffee but none the less he was there for me. I miss him so much that words can not express my feelings. Gods presence in my fathers death was a miricale in its self. The way God laid this out in front of my eyes so that I and pretty much every body else could see God taking care of every last detail to a tee, was amazing and also a comfort to know God was there. Dad I love so much.

“ Please know we are thinking of The Stevens Family at this time and remembering Uncle Steve with the fondest of memories. We often talk of the last family reunion at Camp Sonlight and the fun times we had that week. I'm glad our children had the time to get to know their "Great Uncle Steve". During his battle with cancer we have kept a picture of him riding a horse at the camp up on our fridge to remember him in prayer. We won't forget the many medical update emails he sent thanking us for our prayers, but also letting us know that God is in control no matter what the circumstances. What a testimony to his strong faith in God. Nancy and kids, you will all be in our thoughts and prayers as you go on without your husband and father. Love from Brad, Sheena, Sawyor, Sam and Sullivan.
