“ In loving memory of my bestie, my sister, Summer. From the very beginning, you were my other half, my confidante, and my partner in crime. You stood by me through thick and thin, sharing countless memories that I will forever hold dear.

From our nights on South Beach to prom night, weddings, struggles, and the joy of car dances with my kids, you were always there with a laugh and unwavering support. Your friendship was a gift that I will cherish always.

As I say goodbye for now, I take comfort in knowing that your spirit will live on in the countless lives you touched. Thank you for being my ride or die, my sister, my forever friend. I'm so lucky to have known you, you have loved you and be loved by you. Rest in peace, Summer. You will always hold a special place in my heart.
