“ I remember going over and staying at your house and she was so loving to us. Aunt Susan would make the most beautiful cards and send them to our mom, it would bring a big smile to her face. We love you Uncle Bill, DeeDee and Tammy.

“ My sympathy's go out to her family, my Uncle Bill and cousins Diana and Tammy. She welcomed me many times in her home so I could spend time with my cousin Diana. She kept a lovely home and always was welcoming. I know she will be greatly missed by all. My prayers are with her family and friends. Kristine Putman

“ Aunt Susan and Uncle Bill gave the family the greatest clambakes thanks to her family members, and I loved how she decorated her homes, and how we were always welcome to visit, and I seem to wind up helping to care for the younger cousins, and loved it, whenever I buy clams it will be in memory of her..she will be missed
