

Susan Annette Sowards

January 10, 1961 - May 27, 2025

Susan Annette Soward, a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away on May 27, 2025, in Ocala, FL. Susan was born on January 10, 1961, in Charles, WV, Susan's zest for life and her unyielding kindness touched the hearts of all who knew her.

Susan's journey through life was marked by her genuine warmth and the joy she brought to everyday moments. She was the life of any gathering. Her laughter was infectious, and her spirit was as indomitable as it was loving.

A dedicated mother, Susan raised her children, Christina Hudnall (Randell) and Michael Hudnall (J-Lynn), with unconditional love and unwavering support. She instilled in them the values of honesty, kindness, and the importance of having fun. Her legacy lives on through them and her adored grandchildren Kadenice, Aiden, Nathan, Adam, Dakota, and Lily, who will forever cherish the precious moments and the wisdom she shared.

Susan's professional life mirrored her personal one, filled with friendships and memorable experiences. As a bartender and waitress, she was renowned for her exceptional service, always serving her patrons with a smile and a kind word. Her colleagues and regulars became an extended family, and she is remembered as "darn good" at her job, not just for her skills but for the genuine connections she made.

Her interests were as vibrant as her personality. Known affectionately as the "Bingo Queen," Susan's passion for the game was only matched by her love for cruising. She found joy in the simple pleasure of visiting the local VFW and the Eagles Club, where her honest and "spitfire" nature made her a well-loved member.

Susan is survived by her beloved husband of almost 26 years, Kevin Soward. Her sisters, along with her nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless friends, will miss her deeply. She was preceded in death by her parents. Those who knew Susan will remember her as a beacon of love and kindness.

Susan's story does not end with her passing but continues in the lives of those she loved and the countless memories that will be treasured for generations to come. Susan lived her best life.
