“ I have known Tavie Webb for the last 13 years of my life. She has treated me like one of her own grandchildren. My fondest memory of Tavie is Christmas 2006 when I received a phone call from her wishing me a Merry Christmas and her telling me that she loved me. I am very fortunate to have had such a wonderful person in my life. She will be greatly missed by everyone who's lives she has had a great influence. The times we have spent together will live with me forever. I love you.

“ Chris, words can't say how much I wish I could take the pain away from you right now. Soon all the memories will bring nothing but smiles and joy to your life. Embrace the fact that you had such a wonderful woman in your life for so long and cherish it. May she rest in peace. With deepest sympathy.....

“ Chris, Jen, and Crystal, I just wanted to share how special of a woman Grams was to me personally. My favorite memory of "Grams" was when Chris and I surprised her by cleaning out her bathroom cabinets and all the "junk" that was under there. OOPS!! Well, let's just say, she didn't think so much of it was junk! She had us, and herself go through EVERY SINGLE bottle of whatever and check the dates to make sure it was expired before it went to the trash! haha Afterwards, we all sat on the couch and the chair of course and watched TV until Grams fell asleep. Then Chris and I went back into the bedroom and bathroom and continued to secretly throw away all the "extras." haha ANother fond memory was the few times Jen and or Crystal had sleepovers with us and Grams would always have biscuits and gravy or eggs (BEST EVER) and bacon waiting for us in the morning! YUMMMM I had never had biscuits and gravy until she made them for us!!! Chris would tell you its because i'm a yankee. grrrr. I will never forget my first tasting, not to mention, the yummiest!!! I won't even go into to laughing about some of the stories she told me about when the three of you were kids, or all the girls ganging up on Chris. Memories are beautiful. Keep them sacred and alive in your heart. Grams was always there for me and I will forever remember her and be grateful that I had the opportunity to know and love her. <3 "Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy."
