“ Dearest Rese, I never imagined you would leave this world so soon. I can still remember the exact moment we met. You were wearing a blue dress, and I thought you were the prettiest girl I had ever seen. As did everyone blessed with the opportunity of meeting you. You were talking to someone else, and I heard you say "Springfield". I chimed in that was my college town, and the rest was history. I was new to CA, and you were my first friend who instantly evolved into my best friend. From Halloween in Chico State (which we missed because we took way too long to get ready, but had fun dressing up even if only for ourselves) to Thanksgiving on the Queen Mary with my parents. From dancing in our living room like children, to late night discussions about everything, to simply watching a movie together, and playing around with your old dog Pepper. You were my one and only, (or what kids today call my ride-or-die, loyal til the end friend. Entire crowds would silence and turn their heads when you entered a room. You could've made friends with anyone, but you picked me, and for that I will always be grateful. Your passion and empathy for all living creatures was incredibly rare and so very special. There will never be another like you my dear. Not in a million years. I haven't had the heart to tell my father that you're gone. He loved you dearly, like a bonus daughter, and loved us being friends. Please say hello to my sister when you see her, and save me a seat next to you. Rest peacefully sleeping beauty, until we meet again.

“ I missed seeing you grow up, but you turned into a beautiful person, inside and out.. I will miss your posts and updates on your animals, and how we would message back and forth. Tell your dad I still miss him. See you both again. Will love you always!!!
