“ I just learned of Teresa’s passing. I’m in shock. She was my sister. We came from a terrible family life and were split up at a very young age. I never knew her and the life she had in Florida. So sad that she had no one to claim her and give her a proper burial. Would like to know how she passed.

“ Teresa was my first friend from second grade. She was a loving and caring person. She was intelligent and a hard worker. She was a god fearing woman. Teresa was too good for this world and frequently taken advantage of with her life on earth. RIP my old friend and may you be flying through heaven on a beautiful horse. Give Dad a big hug for me.
