“ You filled my childhood with warmth and comfort. You filled it with memories of holiday decorations and a house that always smelled of Yankee candles. With little surprises and impromptu mother/daughter trips. You always showed up. Whether it was back to school shopping, marching band practices, birthday celebrations, or just baking cookies simply because I had a rotten day. You were the kind of mother I strive to be for your grandsons and I thank God everyday for choosing you to be my momma. I love and miss you each and every day.
