

Terry Harter

December 31, 1969 - January 1, 2007

Obituary of Terry Harter Mr. Terry G. Harter, 66, passed away January 1, 2007 at Munroe Regional Medical Center. He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio and moved to Ocala in 1999 from there. He was a member of the Countryside Presbyterian Church & the Men's Assoc. He was a U.S. Navy Submarine Veteran, for 22 years. Chief Harter was a distinguished member of Admiral Hyman Rickover's staff, an excellent teacher & a greatly respected member of the naval reserve. He was personally lauded on several occasions by the Chief of Naval Operations himself for services above & beyond his assignments. He worked as a Nuclear Engineer. He also started & operated his own Thermography Co., called Institute for Maintenance Technology & Research. He was an avid reader, animal lover, enjoyed mathematics & gardening. He was a member of the U.S. Submarines Nautilus Base Organization, a member of MENSA & the Sinkers and Java Club. He is survived by his cherished wife Joy L. Harter of Ocala, stepson David Hertzig of Chicago, IL & stepdaughters Bethany & Laura Hertzig both of Cincinnati, Ohio. Military interment services will be held at Florida National Cemetery at a later date. Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association, the Parkinson's Association or the SPCA.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ Joy, Just wanted to let you know that the service today was beautiful. Terry would have loved it and he would have been very proud. I will miss him greatly but the lessons he taught the "Shakers" will never be forgotten and always appreciated. God bless and take care. Please keep in close touch. Karen

Karen Martin - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

RA

“ All the staff here at Roberts Funeral Home want to express our condolences to the family of Mr. Terry G. Harter at this difficult time.

Rosemary Arthur - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM