“ I only saw Uncle Tommy once when we were children and had no further contact until we connected many years later on Facebook. He told me to call him Uncle Coo coo, lol. I came to know him as a man who loved fiercely. He loved The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit!! He loved his family, he loved his country. He was very patriotic. He loved the Marines and his Marine brothers and sisters. He fought for their rightsto be compensated for their exposure to deadly chemicals when they were stationed at Camp Lejeune, even as he was fighting his own multiple health battles, most probably attributed to that same exposure. I did get to meet him and his son on one occasion, and had hoped there would be other times so that we could get to know each other better but, it was not to be. Even so, I loved him very much and was thankful for our relationship through FB . Goodbye for now, Uncle Tommy. We WILL get to be together and with our families again one day. Until then, Onward, Christian Soldiers, as that was his calling in his later years. Prayers for peace, comfort and strength for his loved ones in the days ahead.
