

Truman King

February 16, 1940 - August 27, 2015

Obituary of Truman King Truman Wesley King, Jr Born February 16, 1940 "Wes" King met His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ face to face August 27, 2015. Philippians 1:21 was his life and goal. He was a compassionate, confident man of strong convictions. Wes was a loving son, brother, husband, father and grandfather. Blessed with many talents, Wes' life was an adventure. He was: a college athlete at Clemson; a soldier, serving 10 years as a USAF/ANG fighter/test pilot; a district manager/ teacher for Farmers Insurance; and his first love, teaching, especially the Bible, II Timothy 2:15. Wes is known by many for his love of God, his immense love of his bride of 53 years, Jean King, his family and his goofy sense of humor. Wes is survived by two brothers; Malcolm and Brian King, his wife Jean King and their 5 children: T.W.King III (Trey), Athala King, Mrs. Rachel (Kirk) Magill, Mrs. Mary (Bill) Barto, Macon King Balbis. He is "Papa" to 14 GRANDchildren: Alyssa, Jessica, Laura, Valorie, Will, Wesley, Evan, Isaac, Spencer, Sloane, Jake, Katie, Robbie and Karis. Services: Grace Presbyterian Church, September 1, 2015, at 11:00.
