

Valerie J. Priest

December 31, 1959 - March 2, 2019

Valerie J. Priest, 59, passed away Saturday night in Chattanooga, TN surrounded by friends and family when her body finally conceded a long fight with cancer.

Valerie is the daughter of Robert and Joanne Jenkins born and raised in Ocala, FL. She married Joe Franklin Priest, Jr. in 1991 on the Rainbow River in Dunnellon, FL. Valerie will always be mommy, madre, cherished wife, best friend, Coach Val, Valski, entrepreneur, free spirit, parrothead, sailor and so much more.

Valerie is survived by her mom Joanne, husband Frank, sister Cindy Davis, brothers Ken Jenkins and Keith Jenkins, and her three children Corinne Priest, Emma Priest and Camp Priest.

Though this is an incredibly sad time for those whose lives were touched by her, she wouldnt want anyone to dwell in their sorrow. Instead, lets all remember the happiest times we had with her and celebrate her immensely full life.

In lieu of a memorial service, please drop by and share your memories of Valerie with her family and friends on Friday March 8 any time between 1 and 3 on the Rainbow River at the home of Joe F Priest, 9023 SW 190th Avenue

“ To all the family...I just heard today of this terrible news and am completely sad and sorry I could not have attended the gathering to celebrate her life. I can recall clearly as if it was yesterday hanging out with Ken, Val, and Jan at the old house as kids just talking about the future and parties in the basement. How fast the years go by and have been so sorry to lose track with my Val and all my friends. In remembering, I can still hear her laugh which was classic and am sure she did the same all through her life. I wish I could have been there today to share some stories. My thoughts and prayers go out to all especially Ken, Keith, and Cindy and of course Frank. tom.cwik@verizon.net
