“ My condolences to the Calderon Family, Even though I never met or worked with Mr. Calderon I know the type of patriot very well and we share the bond of being Senior Special Agents who worked both in Domestic and International Assignments upholding the security of the United States. The Calderon Family should be proud as we mourn the loss of a true patriot. Prayers sent from a brother USCS Special Agent.

“ I met Vic in Sky Marshal school in 1971. Got to know and trust him in a very short time. Vic taught the other CSO's as much as the trainers. It has been an honor and a privilege to say I knew this man. The world has lost a truly great man. My deepest sympathies, Jack Dobric5H

“ I had the pleasure of working with Victor in U.S. Customs, Miami, Florida back in the 1980s What a wonderful man. A gentleman in every sense of the word. We could use a lot more like him in today in America.

“ The Loss Of A Cousin My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news It never occurred to me, how much I could lose I find myself wishing that it wasn't real Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel Tears fall from my eyes, I can barely see But my heart tells me that he'll always be with me I'm glad he feels no pain now-he lives in a perfect land I can still feel the soft touch on my shoulder of his loving hand I lie in bed and cry at night And I don't feel any better in the morning light And I will love and miss him forever Until the day we are again together. Together in that perfect place above, Filled with caring, sharing and love But until that day comes- I will wipe my tears away. And hopefully see him again someday

“ It was with great sadness that I read the email with the news of Mayito's passing. For our family, Mayito was more than a close friend, but rather extended family. He and Dad (Ventura Esteves) had tours of duty in Puerto Rico, Fort Benning, GA, and the Panama Canal Zone. We would see Mayito often when assignments were in the same area. My sisters, Lorna and Ilsa, join me in extending our most sincere condolences to his widow, Corelia Calderón, as well as to Mayito's siblings and their respective families. May you find comfort in the thought that Mayito now shares in the promise of everlasting life in the House of Our Heavenly Father. Our Love, Peace, and Prayers are with you. “ Our most sincere sympathy and condolences to Mayito's widow and children as well as to his brother and sisters Ivan, Teresita, Tomasita, Edna and Alicia for the irreparable loss. I had the privilege to talk to Mayito over the phone in several occasions and he was kind enough to have sent to me a copy of the book he wrote titled: "The Wager Nobody Cared To Win". He wrote a dedication in the first page as follows: "Ruben e Hilda, Siempre los recuerdo con mucho carino. Encontraran aqui mucho de nuestra Calle Corchado. Abrazos, Mayito (Firma) Victor M. Calderon 12-28-2011." Needless to say that I have read the book in various occasions because it brings me fund memories of my childhood in our Aguadillita Querida. Ma
