“ Vicky you are such a strong brave woman. You spoke of carrying a gun under your car seat because of the violence in South Africa. It takes courage to leave family and friends behind to have make a safer home for you all. Larry and I have had the pleasure of you and Sam being part of our family since Eric and Michelle married. We love you both and I feel you are with Sam again. Missing you, with all my love! There will be a vacant spot without your presence! 💔
