

Victoriana Inoa de Navarro

January 12, 1934 - December 1, 2024

Victoriana Inoa De Navarro was born in La Vega, Dominican Republic to Abraham Inoa and Luisa Perez on January 12, 1934. She was a cherished member of Iglesias Pentecostal Cristo Es Mi Refugio, passed away on December 1, 2024 leaving behind a legacy of Love, Faith, and Service. Her services will be held

At Robert's of Ocala Funeral Services Friday December 6 at 10am-11am. Burial will follow at The Good Shepherd Cemetery at 12pm.

She was a beloved mother, grandmother, great aunt, and cherished member of our community. She dedicated her life to being a beloved housewife, and preacher of the word of God. Victoriana's heart of gold and nurturing spirit touched the lives of everyone around her. Her legacy of love, joy, and laughter spans over 90 beautiful years, leaving behind unforgettable memories and an abundance of treasured moments. She was known for her gourmet Spaniard-style cooking, her hymns, and heartfelt prayers that transcended language barriers. Victoriana's soulful presence had a profound impact, drawing in all who crossed her path with her warm and tender embrace. As we honor her extraordinary journey and the love she radiated, we invite you to join us in creating a heartwarming memorial service that befits her immeasurable impact. Let's come together to bid our 'see you later until further notices' to this angel of God, who touched countless hearts and souls. Let's unite in gratitude for her life and her commitment to spreading the Lord's word and saving souls. Let's create a touching memorial that honors her legacy and the profound love she bestowed upon us all. Together, let's celebrate her life, love, and the countless blessings she brought into our lives. In honoring Victoriana, let's embody the eternal message of John 3:16 - embracing love, faith, and the promise of eternal life through our cherished memories of her.

Thank you for being a part of this heartfelt tribute to a truly extraordinary soul.

2 She is serviced by her daughter Gladys Marte and her two sons Jose and Domingo Marte,

The Marte family, The Inoa Family and The Perez Family.
