Virginia kept a special place in her heart for her children and grandchildren and even her great grandchildren. She impacted the lives of many people and left a smile on people's faces anywhere she went. Those would say she was a ray of sunshine and that she was. She will live on in the lives of many and will never be forgotten. Virginia was a very loving daughter, sister, wife, mother and grandmother.

I would just like for family and friends to remember at this sad time we are enduring right now she would want us all to be strong and happy and let her heart live on through us. She would also like you guys to know she is reunited with her one true and elegant love Harold Eugene Mitchell and my wish is that they are dancing up in that sky together finally reunited. My hearts sits at peace knowing that she is no longer hurting and she is finally at peace. She left a huge mark on this world and that will never be forgotten. Your wings were ready but my heart was not.
